

Yuzhen Cui, Ph. D., is associate professor of Chinese University of Political Science and Law(CUPL) and deputy director of The Legal Language Research Center(CUPL). She received Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Peking University in Chinese Department and her Ph. D. from City University of Hong Kong in linguistics. Her research interests focus on applied linguistics, forensic linguistics, discourse analysis, corpus linguistics. And her academic specialty is to study Chinese discourses especially Chinese forensic discourses from the pragmatic perspective.