

XXIV. THE TREASURER

1. This Ordinance is made pursuant to Statute IV which provides for the Treasurer to be appointed by the Court on the nomination of the Council, to hold office for five years, or until his/her previous death, resignation or removal from office, to be eligible for reappointment and to perform such functions as may be determined by Ordinance.
2. The Treasurer shall annually present the Audited Statement of Accounts to the Council and the Court.
3. The Treasurer is expected to keep the long term financial strategy of the University under review and to advise the Council, the Resources Committee or other Committees as appears appropriate.
4. The Treasurer is expected to provide objective and informed advice to the University on the implications for the longer term viability of the University of matters under consideration.
5. The Treasurer is expected to satisfy himself/herself that the University conducts its affairs in accordance with the standards of probity and propriety expected in public life and to advise the Council of any remedial measures that may be required.
6. Should the Treasurer come to the conclusion that any development or activity proposed or started by the University is contrary to the stated policies or the Financial Regulations of the University or otherwise is not approved by the Council or a duly authorised Committee of the University, he/she may direct that such development or activity be halted immediately. Any development or activity which is so halted may not resume until this is formally authorised by the Council. If no meeting of the Council is scheduled to occur within 28 days of the Treasurer's direction, the University Secretary shall make arrangements to hold a special meeting of the Council within the same period of 28 days.
7. The Council may by resolution request the Treasurer to undertake other functions as an office holder of the University which are reasonably consistent with the above.
