

From early 2017, Tax-Free Childcare (TFC) will be available to working parents. However, your existing childcare voucher scheme will continue to run as normal, so you can decide which works best for you and your family.

Are you better off with Tax-Free Childcare or Childcare Vouchers?

CHILDCARE VOUCHERS

- Save up to £933 per parent (£1,866 per family)
- Only one parent needs to be working
- Available to children aged 15 and under
- Both parents can claim if divorced/separated
- Self employed parents are not eligible
- Employers administer scheme

TAX-FREE CHILDCARE

- Save 20% of childcare costs per child
- Both parents need to be working
- Available to children aged 12 and under
- Only one parent can claim if divorced/separated
- Self employed parents are eligible
- Parents administer scheme

In a survey of more than 5,000 working parents, 66% are better off with Childcare Vouchers. If you sign up now you'll have the choice of schemes when TFC launches.
