 - 200000+ members
 - 500000+ students
 - 180+ countries and different nationalities
 - 2500+ organisation
3. A new and improved qualification of ethical, professional and technical skills

What's included in your learning?

- A flexible programme of study that comprehensively covers the technical, financial and management skills required by accountants in business
- An opportunity to combine theory and practice delivered through a blend of learning methods
 - Face to face tutorial sessions
 - Online learning
 - Virtual Learning Environment (VLE)
 - Webinars and live tutorials
 - Revision specific sessions
 - Examination preparation
 - Out of class support via email, telephone or face to face
 - A flexible mix of full day, half day, twilight, evening and weekend sessions

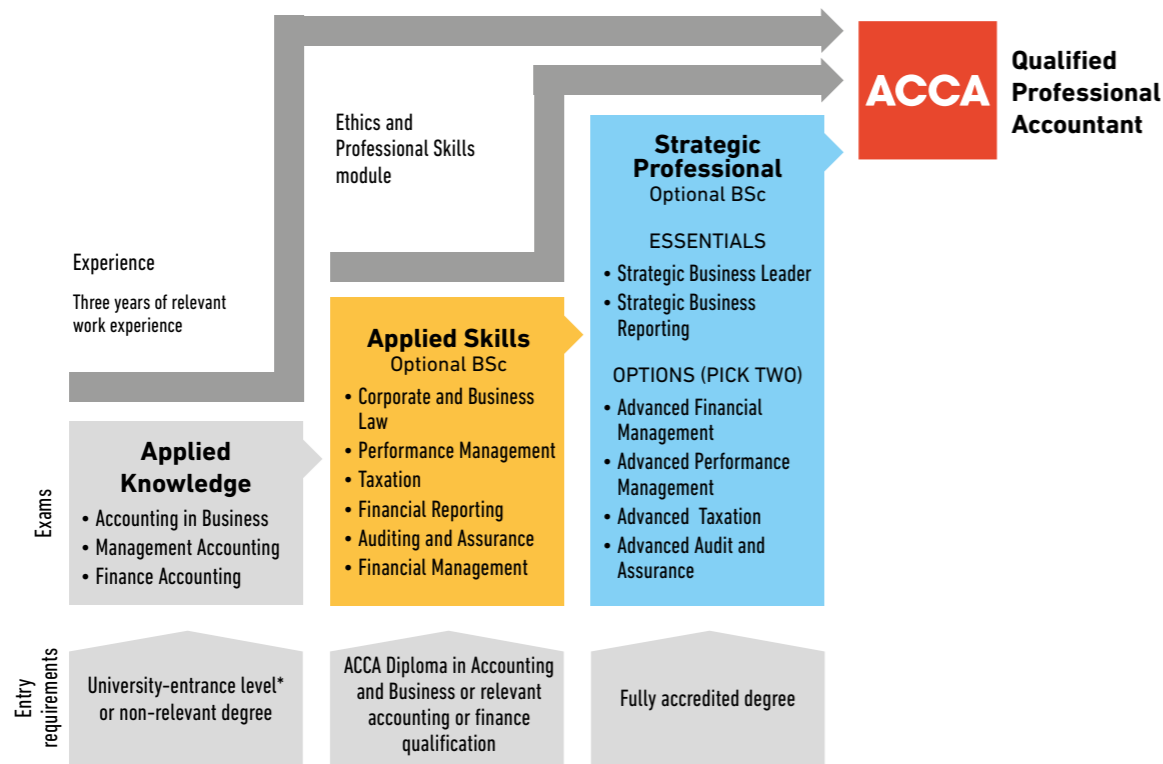

How is the programme assessed?

Each module is assessed by a Computer Based Examination (CBE) which are either On Demand CBEs or Session CBEs. On Demand CBEs assessment dates are scheduled by your learning provider and Session CBEs are scheduled by the ACCA and take place at four window points in the calendar year: March, June, September and December.

Length of Study

ACCA suggest a typical length of study is three to four years on average. A flexible programme of study is available at The Management Centre. Please discuss your expectations and requirements with The Management Centre ACCA Team to ensure that you are able to study in the most appropriate way for you.

The ACCA Qualification – Overview

The ACCA Qualification at The Management Centre: When can I enrol?

You can enrol on the ACCA programme at The Management Centre at three entry points per year:

- January
- April
- September

The schedule for delivery of the ACCA at The Management Centre offers flexibility and provides an option for you to dip in and out of your studies dependent on which modules remain outstanding and which exemptions you have been awarded prior learning for by the ACCA. This approach may also provide breaks in your learning if you need to apply your attention to other areas of your life, such as work commitments or personal events.

Typical ACCA Study Structure

Set out below is a typical study structure for each level. Note that the running order of modules may be adjusted due to schedule requirements.

Applied Knowledge

Available as a 6 or 12 month programme dependent on the time you can allocate to your studies.

JAN	FEB	MAR	APR	MAY	JUN	JUL	AUG	SEP	OCT	NOV	DEC
Accountant in Business (AB)								Accountant in Business (AB)
		Management Accounting (MA)								Management Accounting (MA)

Entry Requirements

The ACCA minimum entry requirements per country are available at:

www.accaglobal.com/uk/en/qualifications/glance/acca/minimum-entrance-requirements.html

Applicants must have high levels of fluency in the English language. International students are generally required to provide evidence of their English language proficiency. The English language level normally required for entry is IELTS 6.0 or equivalent.

Exemptions

The ACCA offer exemptions from the ACCA qualifications to students who have studied other relevant qualifications. This means you can start your studies at a level that is consistent with the knowledge and skills gained from prior learning and provides you with the quickest route to ACCA membership. The ACCA exemption calculator can be accessed at:

www.accaglobal.com/vn/en/help/exemptions-calculator.html

How much will it cost?

Module fees are payable directly to The Management Centre. Contact us for further information and to discuss potential funding and discounts.

Fees payable directly to ACCA include registration fees, subscription fees, exemption fees and exam entry fees, with the exception of on demand computer based examinations, which are paid directly to The Management Centre.
