Part 1 EXPLANATORY INFORMATION

This is your written statement of the occupation contract you have made under the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016 ("the Act"). The contract is between you, as the "contract-holder", and the "landlord".

Your landlord must give you a written statement, free of charge, within 14 days of the "occupation date" (the day on which you were entitled to move in). If you did not receive a copy of this written statement (including electronically if you have agreed to receive the written statement in an electronic form) within 14 days of the occupation date, for each day it is late, the landlord may be liable to pay you compensation, equivalent to a day's rent, up to a maximum of two months' rent (unless the failure was intentional in which case you can apply to the court to increase this amount).

The written statement must contain the terms of your contract and the explanatory information that the landlord is required to give you. The terms set out your rights and responsibilities and those of the landlord (that is, the things that you and your landlord must do or are permitted to do under the occupation contract). You should read the terms to ensure you fully understand and are content with them and then sign where indicated to confirm that you are content. The written statement should be kept safe as you may need to refer to it in the future.

The terms of your contract consist of:

that is:

- the address of the accommodation;
- the occupation date;
- the amount of rent (or other consideration);
- the rental period (i.e. the period in respect of which the rent is payable);
- the fact that this is a fixed term contract; and
- if there are periods during which the contract-holder is not entitled to occupy the accommodation as home, details of those periods.

"Fundamental Terms"

these are provisions of the Act that are automatically included as terms of an occupation contract. Some cannot be changed and must reflect the wording in the Act². However, others can be left out or changed, but only if you and the landlord agree to do that and it benefits you as the contract-holder.

"Supplementary Terms"

these are provisions, set out in regulations made by the Welsh Ministers, which are also automatically included as terms of an occupation contract. However, providing you and the landlord agree to it, these can be left out or changed, either to benefit you or the landlord. Supplementary terms cannot be omitted or modified in a way that would make those terms incompatible with a fundamental term.

Where a fundamental or supplementary term has been left out or changed, this must be identified in this written statement. This has been identified using capital letters and/or striking through.

The terms of your contract may also include:

“Additional Terms”

these are provisions agreed by you and the landlord, which can cover any other matter, provided they do not conflict with a key matter, a fundamental term or a supplementary term. These are the terms included at Annexure 2.

Under section 62 of the Consumer Rights Act 2015, an additional term, or any change to a supplementary term, which is unfair (within the meaning of that Act), is not binding on you.

An incorrect or incomplete written statement may mean the landlord is liable to pay you compensation.

Where any changes to this contract are agreed after the start of this contract, the landlord must provide you with a written copy of the new term or terms or a new written statement of this contract, within 14 days of the change being agreed.

Your contract is a fixed term standard contract, which means that it initially lasts for a specified period of time agreed between you and the landlord. It also means that you cannot be evicted without a court order, unless you abandon the accommodation. Before a court makes such an order your landlord must demonstrate that the correct procedures have been followed and at least one of the following is satisfied:

- (a) you have broken one or more terms of the contract (which includes any arrears of rent, engaging in anti-social behaviour and other prohibited conduct, and failing to take proper care of the accommodation) and it is reasonable to evict you;
- (b) you are seriously in arrears with your rent (e.g. WHERE THE RENTAL PERIOD IS A YEAR, IF AT LEAST 25% OF THE RENT IS MORE THAN THREE MONTHS IN ARREARS); or
- (c) your landlord needs to move you, and one of the estate management grounds under section 160 (estate management grounds) of the Act applies, suitable alternative accommodation is available (or will be available when the order takes effect), and it is reasonable to REQUIRE ~~evict~~ you TO VACATE THE ACCOMMODATION.

You have important rights as to how you can use the accommodation, although some of these require the consent of your landlord. IF THIS CONTRACT PERMITS SOMEONE TO LIVE WITH YOU AT THE ACCOMMODATION, someone who lives with you at the accommodation may have a right to succeed to this contract if you die.

You must not allow the accommodation to become overcrowded by permitting more people to live in it than the maximum number allowed. Part 10 of the Housing Act 1985 provides the basis for determining the maximum number of people permitted to live in the accommodation. THIS IS ALWAYS SUBJECT TO THE LIMITS IMPOSED BY THIS CONTRACT.

You can be held responsible for the behaviour of everyone who lives in and visits the accommodation. Anti-social behaviour and other prohibited conduct can include excessive noise, verbal abuse and physical assault. It may also include domestic abuse (including physical, emotional and sexual, psychological, emotional or financial abuse).

If you have a problem with your ACCOMMODATION ~~home~~, you should first contact your landlord. Many problems can be resolved quickly by raising them when they first arise. If you are unable to reach an agreement with your landlord, you may wish to contact an advice agency (such as Citizens Advice Cymru or Shelter Cymru) or independent legal advisors or your Students' Union. Disputes regarding your contract may ultimately be settled through the county courts.

If you have any questions about this contract, you may find the answer on the Welsh Government's website along with relevant information, such as information on the resolution of disputes. Alternatively, you may wish to contact an advice agency (such as Citizens Advice Cymru or Shelter Cymru) or independent legal advisors.

ESTATE MANAGEMENT GROUNDS

REDEVELOPMENT GROUNDS

1. Ground A (building works)

The landlord intends, within a reasonable time of obtaining possession of the accommodation—

 - 1.1 to demolish or reconstruct the building or part of the building comprising the accommodation, or
 - 1.2 to carry out work on that building or on land treated as part of the accommodation and cannot reasonably do so without obtaining possession of the accommodation.
2. Ground B (redevelopment schemes)
 - 2.1 This ground arises if the accommodation satisfies the first condition or the second condition.
 - 2.2 The first condition is that the accommodation is in an area which is the subject of a redevelopment scheme approved in accordance with Part 2 of Schedule 8 to the Act, and the landlord intends within a reasonable time of obtaining possession to dispose of the accommodation in accordance with the scheme.
 - 2.3 The second condition is that part of the accommodation is in such an area and the landlord intends within a reasonable time of obtaining possession to dispose of that part in accordance with the scheme, and for that purpose reasonably requires possession of the accommodation.

SPECIAL ACCOMMODATION GROUNDS

3. Ground C (charities)
 - 3.1 The landlord is a charity and the contract-holder's continued occupation of the accommodation would conflict with the objects of the charity.
 - 3.2 But this ground is not available to the landlord ("L") unless, at the time the contract was made and at all times after that, the person in the position of landlord (whether L or another person) has been a charity.
 - 3.3 In this paragraph, "charity" has the same meaning as in the Charities Act 2011 (see section 1 of that Act).
