THE CITY OF BANGOR

Easy to get around

Bangor is a compact city and easily explored by foot or by bike. It's a short stroll from your University accommodation to one of the many lecture theatres or the city centre.

Lots to see

Bangor has some amazing landmarks, including the beautiful Garth Pier with its Victorian kiosks; St Deiniol's Cathedral, where many of the native princes of Wales are buried, and Thomas Telford's stunning Menai Suspension Bridge.

Steeped in history

Bangor is the oldest city in Wales, and Bangor University itself first opened its doors on 18 October, 1884.

Welcoming student community

Bangor truly is a student city, with one of the highest ratios of students to permanent residents in the UK. Its close and welcoming community means our students tend to settle in quickly!

Everything you need

Supermarkets, shops, cafés, restaurants, takeaways and pubs are all within easy reach, and there are plenty of independent shops and eateries to discover too.

Full of culture

Visit the University's Pontio Arts and Innovation Centre to enjoy the very best from the world of cinema, theatre, arts and culture.

Celebrates diversity

The University city is home to international students from over 120 countries, giving you the opportunity to make friends from many different cultures and backgrounds.

YOUR STUDENTS' UNION

the Students' Union, is the voice of students and the home of student life at Bangor. Located on the fourth floor of Pontio, the Students' Union runs sports clubs, networks, societies and volunteering projects.

Undeb Myfyrwyr Cymraeg Bangor (UMCB)

is Bangor's Welsh Students' Union and looks after the welfare of Welsh-speaking students and learners, and anyone else with an interest in the Welsh language and culture.

The Students' Union is led by elected student representatives whose role is to enrich and enhance the student experience at Bangor. If there's anything you want or think needs to change, they are there to listen and support you.

GET INVOLVED

At Bangor, you'll have the opportunity to enjoy more activities and sports than you can ever imagine! It's a fantastic way to make friends, meet new people and try something new.

During Welcome Week, the Students' Union organises a huge fair called Serendipity where you'll be able to see what's on. All our clubs, societies and volunteering projects will be there, so you can stop by their stalls to find out more and sign up for taster sessions.

WELSH MEDIUM PROVISION

Study in Welsh

Welsh-speaking students have the opportunity to study all or part of their degree through the medium of Welsh.

There is a great demand for young professionals who can work bilingually in Wales, and studying through the medium of Welsh at University will provide an excellent foundation for your career.

NORTH WALES MEDICAL SCHOOL

In September 2025, our growing and expanding North Wales Medical School launches its first pharmacy degree, enabling students to study pharmacy in North Wales for the first time.

Bangor University's medicine programme enables students to complete their entire medical degree programme in North Wales, working in close collaboration with Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board and Primary Care providers across the area.

Our medicine degree offers students a rich learning environment with greater emphasis on learning in practice and at the heart of local communities, in keeping with the Welsh Government's plan "A Healthier Wales".
