BEACHES

For a relaxing day out there is nothing better than a visit to the beach and Anglesey has some of the best beaches in the UK: Here are some we think you would like.... (Don't forget your sunscreen!)

NEWBOROUGH

The Newborough Beach stretches from Abermenai Point on the Menai Strait in the south to Llanddwyn Island in the north. The miles of golden sand a backdrop of huge sand dunes make this a great summer day out

HOW TO GET THERE:

Car: 17 miles, 35 minutes
Bus: Bangor Bus Station (Stop C) to Newborough village, 40 min, approx. £7, 10-15 minute walk from the village to the beach. Bus 42/42A timetable.

BENLLECH

Benllech beach is popular for sea canoeing and surfing. Moreover, the close proximity of the Anglesey Coastal Path is one of the best coastline walks in Wales and the UK Winner of the European Blue Flag.

HOW TO GET THERE:

Car: 15 miles, 30 minutes
Bus: Bangor Bus Station (Stop D) to Benllech. 40 min return, approx. £7. Bus 62 timetable.

RHOSNEIGR

The beach coastline stretches all the way from the intimately small Cable Bay, along the popular Rhosneigr beaches and all the way to the peace and privacy of Cymyran Beach. this seaside village is world famous for windsurfing, kite-Surfing and sailing

HOW TO GET THERE:

Car: 21 miles, 40 minutes
Train: Bangor to Rhosneigr, approx.£7 (day return), 10 min walk from station to the beach. Train times.

LLIGWY

Located on the North East side of Anglesey, Lligwy is protected from the prevailing winds. The beach has shallow shelving, rock pools and an ancient fish trap, while in the bay is Ynys Dulas, (Seal Island) and you could see seals or dolphins.

HOW TO GET THERE:

Car: 15 miles, 30 minutes
Bus: Bangor Bus Station (Stop D) to Rhos Lligwy. 40 min return, approx. £7. Bus 62 timetable.
