

iCan manage my time and live a balanced life

This upbeat workshop looks at practical ways in which we can organise our time in order to achieve our best results. I will challenge the idea that all students need to do to succeed is work harder. The aim of the workshop is to enable the participants to think about ALL the things they need and want in their life to enable them to succeed and remain happy and fulfilled.