

Living at home during your studies? Find out how we can support your Employability.

If you're living at home while you study you may already be familiar with Bangor and the surrounding area, but as you navigate this new experience our team in the Employability Service is available to support you and help you make the most of your university studies.

We offer workshops and individual support on a wide range of topics related to employability, advertise part-time jobs and work experience opportunities, and have lots of online resources available to help you too.

All our services are available in Welsh and English.
